Resident Spotlight Inez Williams

Inez was born on a farm in Mocksville, NC. She is the fourth of seven siblings. The family made their living from running a dairy.

Inez has always loved the outdoors. She likes basketball and golf and enjoys watching sports on TV. She played on the girls' basketball team at Mocksville High.

After graduation she worked for Hanes Hosiery and then moved on to Indera Mills in downtown Winston-Salem. The company was a textile mill and Inez worked in payroll until she retired in 1984.

Her enjoyment has been working in her yard, garden and flowers. She continued making persimmon pudding from her own tree until she moved to assisted living.

Inez has been a caregiver for several of her family members throughout her life. She has never been married but has mothered nine nieces and nephews and a few great nieces and nephews. She has faithfully attended her home church, Smith Grove United Methodist Church her entire life. She has had a few adventures also, like the time her and her two sisters traveled by train to New York City for touring and to Madison Square Garden to hear the Reverend Billy Graham. This was back when women wore dresses and high heels even to tour a big city.

She loves the beach and water but never learned to swim. Her hometown, Mocksville, holds a Masonic Picnic yearly. As far back as she can remember, she went yearly to ride the rides, eat and socialize.

Inez has spent many years vacationing at Myrtle Beach with her sister's family. Her niece and nephew will tell you it wasn't a vacation without Inez along. She played countless hours with her "family kids" playing games, outdoor fun, walks in the woods, and sleepovers.

Inez turned 96 years old March 1st and says she doesn't feel it (nor looks it). Life has been good to her and she gives thanks to God for always being by her side.

Thank you Inez for being such a special member of our Clemmons Village family. You will never know how much you mean to each of us. We love and appreciate you more than words can say.

Inez with her parents and siblings. Inez is on the right end.

Inez with her niece and nephew, Sherri and Ken, at her homeplace that was built in the late 1800's.

Inez means the world to her nieces and nephews, especially Sherri. She has been a part of Sherri's life since she was born and was a second mother to her. Sherri shares with us her love for her aunt and the amazing life Inez lives.
