World Alzheimer's Day is September 21st.

Emerald Gardens will be having a Tailgating Party that will kick off at 4:00. Party will include a Hotdog Cookout, Memory Walk, Memorial Service, Honarium Service and end with a special dedication at 6:15. We would love for our families to attend. We want to recognize all our loved ones here at EG (past and present) who have been diagnosed with Alzheimers. Please contact Kim Shiflet or Jan Ramsey if you will be able to attend this special time with us. Please contact us no later than Wednesday, September 14th. Several of you have ordered the special t-shirts for this day. If so, please be sure to wear those to this special event. If not, we would love for everyone to wear black or purple, if possible.

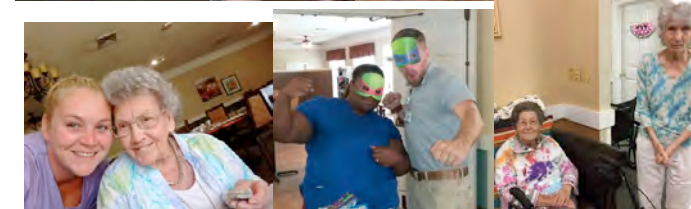

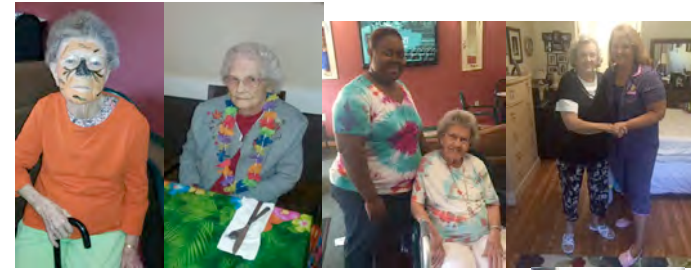

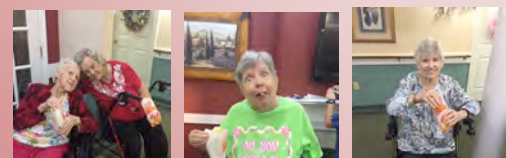

Pig Therapy

The residents really enjoyed having Mary Grace's miniature pig come to visit!

Spirit Week

Spirit Week was fun for all! Residents, staff and families got involved, dressed for the occasion and shared in great times together. Pajama Day, Wacky Day, Animal Day, Tie-Dye Day and Hawaiian Day brought many smiles, laughter, fellowship, and fun to Emerald Gardens. Thank you to everyone who helped make this week a success!
