Ivy Hall Assisted Living, Employee Recognition, Carole Simon, Employee at Ivy Hall receives 20 Year Service Award, presented by Executive Director, Michael L. Patterson

JOHNS CREEK, GA – Carole Simon, Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) was recognized this week for 20 years of service at Ivy Hall Assisted Living. Michael Patterson, Ivy Hall’s Executive Director, presented Carole with an inscribed crystal clock, a letter of commendation and a monetary bonus in appreciation for her time serving residents in the community. Patterson says, “Our care staff is the essence of who we are at Ivy Hall and Carole is the epitome of dedication and loyalty. She brings a high level of energy, compassion and kindness to work with her every day. We are extremely fortunate to have employees at Ivy Hall with a heart like Carole.” Carole is commonly referred to by staff as “Mamma Carole” for her caring leadership style. She looks out for new employees just like she does for residents.

Ivy Hall and sister community, St. Ives Memory Care, are owned by Premier Senior Living and have been part of the Alpharetta/Johns Creek community for over 20 years. They have an excellent reputation for providing quality care and wellness programs to seniors and their family members for a great value.

Residents and their families say they have chosen Ivy Hall and St. Ives Memory Care because of their refined concern, attention to detail, and enhanced social programs. Care extends to the whole person: mind, body, and soul. Residents benefit from a variety of individualized programs: social, recreational, cultural, and spiritual activities, intergenerational events, pet therapy, gardening, and many more life enrichment activities. On-site therapy (OT/PT/ST) provided by Aegis Therapies.
